

LIBERATOR

THE 1973 LIBERATOR

LINCOLN HIGH SCHOOL
YPSILANTI, MICHIGAN

YEARBOOK STAFF

PICTURE ONE: Puzzled, confused and utterly frustrated yearbook advisor wonders what to do with all the pictures he got, but more especially what to do about all those he did not get but had to dig out from under rocks and trees and other impedimenta.

PICTURE TWO: PCAUFYA is taken in hand by kindly and competent girl guide and editor Melinda Wolfe who explains to him gently what one is supposed to do with all this stuff and nonsense.

PICTURE THREE: Formerly PCAUFYA goes enthusiastically to work to bring order out of the chaos seen at left, some of which was left over from last year.

Finally, with assistance or promises of assistance from numerous people, including Melinda, Mr. Andon, Laurie Wrubel, Sue Yates, Rachel Chie, Cheryl Perino, Alexandra Walker, Pat Wilson, Sharon Rowe, Judy Jones, Photographer Joe Yunkman, Jane Spence, and others too few to mention, the PCAUFYA IS enabled to bring forth one more time an edition of THE LIBERATOR for the class of 1973.

SENIOR SPONSOR

Mr. Andon, sponsor of the class of 1973, is shown below doing some of the many things - checking lists, assigning responsibilities, admonishing students, preparing for events - which are the lot of the senior sponsor.

But he has approached these routine tasks in such a single-minded way as to earn, the Flash-back said, "gratitude for his loyalty and devotion to the Class of 1973.

Loyalty and devotion are rare enough qualities these days, It is gratifying to see them, and see them recognized.

A minimalist line drawing of a tree with a large circular moon or sun behind it. The tree is composed of several thin, overlapping lines that form its trunk and branches, extending from the bottom left towards the top right. The circular shape is positioned in the upper left quadrant, partially overlapping the tree's branches. The word "JUNIORS" is printed in a bold, sans-serif font in the upper right quadrant.

The Class of 1975 "Tame to Win" and took second place.

The Class of 1976 "Cage the Lyons" for third place which is better than the team did, losing to South Lyons 20-12.

The Class of 1974 said "The Lyons Sleep Tonight." They didn't.

H O M E C O M I N G

The people shown above are being inducted into Thespians, a Dramatics Honor Society, now in its second year here. Under the leadership of their able Coach and Director, Mrs. Guernsey, they participated with the other members of the group, shown below in the production of a fine play, "Arsenic and Old Lace," and a truly excellent (and highly enjoyable) musical, "Calamity Jane." The former starred Donna Giezantner and Toni Boelter as the two old ladies and was presented Nov. 17th and 18th. The latter starred Angie Lamkin as Calamity Jane and Joe Yekulis as Wild Bill Hickok, and was presented May 4th and 5th with the able assistance of Mr. Bowman and the pit orchestra. Many other faculty members helped the highly motivated cast and Assistant Director Alexandra Walker to the end that "a good time was had by all."

SWIM CLUB

SWIM SHOW

Presented March 30th and 31st, "Friday and Saturday Night at the Movies," the 1973 Swim Show was comprised of 14 numbers, two solos, one duet, two club numbers and nine others. Probably the most exciting was the finale "Man of La Mancha," though there were many different numbers ranging from Cinderella to 2001. Two packed houses enjoyed this productions by the Silver Dolphins.

COMING HOME

Sponsored for the second straight year by the Lincoln High Student Council, the Cominghome ceremony this year was accompanied by the jubilation of a very welcome win over the troublesome Saline Hornets. The 71-61 victory was the first by the Railsplitters since the 1968 season.

After the game, a Cominghome dance was held, the central feature of which was the crowning of the Cominghome king from a court already elected by the student body. Larry Hunter, Lincoln Center, was chosen and presided over the remaining festivities with his queen, Evette Williams, both of whom are shown at the left.

JUNIOR-SENIOR PROM

The Prom was held on May 11th in the Regency Room of the Campus Inn with 85 couples in attendance.

JUNIOR-SENIOR BANQUET

The Junior-Senior Banquet was held at the West Bank Room of the Holiday Inn on May 25th with 162 juniors, seniors and their guests in attendance.
