LIBERATOR

THE 1980 LIBERATOR

LINCOLN HIGH SCHOOL
YPSILANTI, MICHIGAN

Although she is not retiring in the technical sense, it seemed suitable to acknowledge in some way the eight years of service (with time out for the advent of Joshua, of course!) which Mary Cain has rendered to the students of Lincoln District as a counselor and extra-curricular advisor. We wish her well in whatever she undertakes to do.

YEARBOOK STAFF

Shown with Mr. Libbey, the Yearbook advisor, are the people who, in one way or another, have helped to bring this volume to fruition. These are: Tammy Sweet, Carol Konopski, Shelley Libbey and Julayne Morningstar.

ADMINISTRATION

SCHOOL BOARD

Seated: Trustees John Sanderson and Allen Houghton, Vice-President Margaret Crawford. Standing: President Ed Lutz, Trustee Carolyn Seidl, Secretary Mary Huggins and Treasurer Frank Sinclair.

Superintendent Jenvey, Board President Ed Lutz, and Reverends Waltz and Montgomery listen attentively to Commencement speaker Reverend Dale Miller re: "A Touch of Class — 1980 Style."

At right, President Lutz welcomes the Class of 1980 as he has done many times before.

Wouldn't it be wonderful if Lincoln had an all-weather track like the one at Bedford (shown above) as a home for its track champions, both male and female? On the other hand, it may be true, as some people say, that you have to be deprived and disadvantaged to achieve championship status. If so we are and we have.

PLAY AND MUSICAL

Mrs. Guernsey and the Drama Department did their usual competent job in the fall with the play, "George Washington Slept Here" with Candy Lemerand and Keith Harr in the starring roles.

The usual fine collaboration between the Music and Drama departments resulted in an unusually fine rendition of "My Fair Lady" with Mary Mullins as Liza and Ralph Day having a field day as her tormentor, 'Enry 'Iggins. The pit orchestra and corps de ballet were also to be commended.

ACTIVITIES

HOME-COMING 1979

Movies were the motivation for this year's floats and "Jaws" ate them up here too, which made the Class of 1982 very happy. Unfortunately, the football team could not do the same for Saline in the game.

Walt Disney was undoubtedly very fond of Herby the loveable Volkswagen but he placed second in the affections of our float judges which made the Class of 1981 somewhat happy.

The prospect of Dracula biting an angry hornet raises some interesting prospects but they were good only for a third place finish which is, after all, quite respectable for the freshmen, Class of 1983.

HORROR (Amityville or otherwise) is the word which must be used to register the dismay of the Class of 1980 which finished first in 1978. Oh! How the mighty are fallen!
