LIBERATOR STAFF

Having produced thirty-one issues of the LIBERATOR, Mr. Libbey (right) has decided to call it quits. Thirty-one years of anything is a lot and producing thirty-one yearbooks is a lot to ask of any one person. So — he has hung it up, along with a promising teaching career which if he had kept at it just a while longer might — but why fantasize, it was a game he enjoyed, but it is only right that enjoyment should be shared, that we give the younger kids a chance to play.

So — Red Rover, Red Rover, let whoever come over. Let's listen to the fat lady sing.

Front: Alicia Bolen, Lori Julius, Missy Lafferty. Rear: Mr. Manning, Melissa Edwards, Robert Hunter, Tammy Rickard, Mr. Libbey.

ON THE DEATH OF A COLLEAGUE

It's not that I feel a great loss;
I did not know you.
No, I cannot grieve for you,
But I am bothered —

Friday, I watched you working;
Monday, your office is dark.

HOMECOMING '85

"Movies" was the homecoming theme at Lincoln this year. The Seniors took first place with their "Hornetbusters" in keeping with our Homecoming opponent, Saline. (Below)

The Lincoln Marching Band headed the traditional parade (Bottom right) while clowns Denise Saltz and Jo Terry (Right) rode along to spark the action.

The Junior float (Below) using the same Ghostbusters theme as the seniors was considered the best effort ever by the Junior Class.

Clowns Lori Viterna (Right) and Lori and Christi Perkins (Bottom right) also added to the excitement.
