THE 1968 LIBERATOR

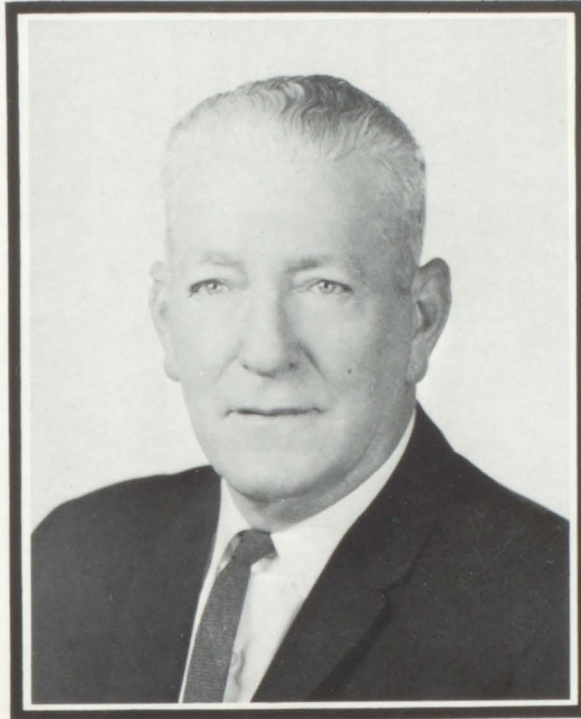

LINCOLN HIGH SCHOOL
YPSILANTI, MICHIGAN

YEARBOOK STAFF

Pictured above are the big chief, Yearbook Advisor Mr. Libbey, and his two chief Indians, Co-editors Linda Leonard and Connie Baisch, in full regalia. Thanks are also due to Carol Czinski and various other itinerant and transient personnel who aided Connie and Linda in the monstrous task of bringing you this year's LIBERATOR. Not to be forgotten are the services of Mr. Louis Prieskorn and his photographic assistants, particularly Darry Patterson and Neil Allen, who provided most of the group shots and candids which make up such an important part of this book.

DEDICATION

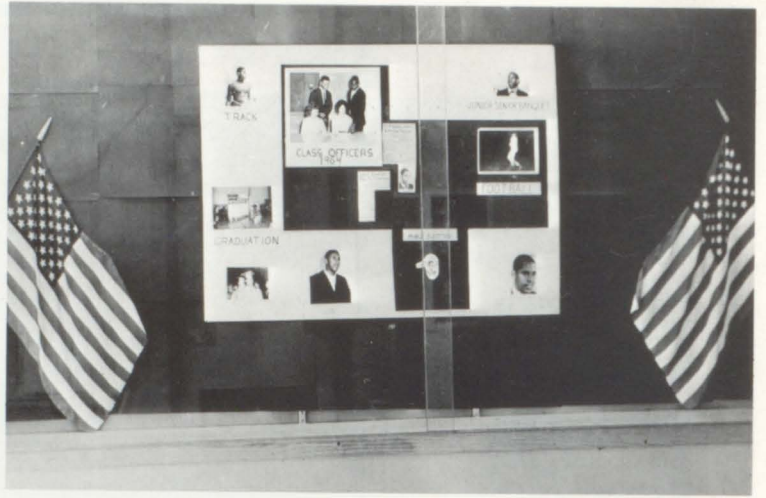

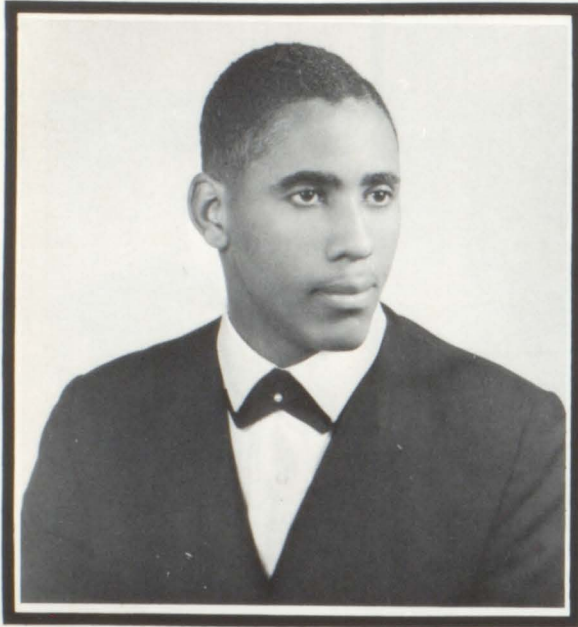

MR. O. G. JOHNSON
July 8, 1905 - December 28, 1967

We respectfully dedicate the 1968 LIBERATOR to the memory of Mr. Johnson who, for fourteen years, joyously and conscientiously served all the students of the Lincoln School district.

GRADUATION

Three times this year the proud
Banner we carry on our masthead
Was brought down. In February,
In April, and once again in June
It drooped in memory of a death
Ken Fulton, Martin Luther King,
Bob Kennedy. Two black, one white
