Seniors tug the rope at the pep rally. There's no way the other side is going to win this one.

And he makes the catch! Jeremy Stetler helps Lincoln in their victory against Dexter in the Homecoming Game.

Homecoming

First Homecoming Win In Seven Years.

With the hustle and bustle in decorating the halls you can always tell it's Homecoming. A week before this event students show their school spirit by wearing costumes on such days as Opposite Gender day, Pajama day, Blue and Gray day, etc. At the end of Spirit Week we have our famous Pep Rally where classes compete in games like the three legged race, wheel barrel race, tug of war, etc. Ladies represent their classes by being chosen as Princesses on the Homecoming Court. One lucky Senior will be chosen as the Queen. This year Robin Waller was picked as the Queen of the Homecoming Court.

Our Homecoming game was against Dexter and we won! It was the first Homecoming game Lincoln has won in seven years. After the game many students go to the dance, and this year we had something to celebrate.

Trying to avoid being tackled by their opponents, Lincoln runs for a touchdown.

Escorted by her father, Homecoming Queen Robin Waller smiles proudly at the crowd.

A few members of the Sophomore class try their hardest to defeat the Seniors in the tug-of-war contest.

The Sophomores make it to the top in the pep assembly activity, the pyramid.

It's The Guy's Turn!

A King

Homecoming is a time when the girls strut their stuff, Cominghome is when the fellas show us what they're really made of.

Cominghome is a time for various activities. The basketball game and the pep assembly are everyone's favorites. Spirit week is a unique way for us to get pumped up for the big game. Usually each class decorates their own hallway, but this year we decorated the cafeteria and had a lock-in. Cominghome week is filled with life-time memories every year.

Once Upon A Mattress

This year's spring musical went back to Medieval Times. No one could marry until Prince Dauntless found a princess. The Queen tests many princesses, but they all fail until Winifred. The musical, which was directed by Ellen Francis, was very well received by the student body and community. All shows were successful, especially opening night.

Lyndsay Michalik takes time to braid Amy Upston's hair.

Jester Rachel Packard, Minstrel Chris Smith, and King Kevin White.

Angie Voelker and Kristi Baker anxiously await the arrival of their plane to Daytona Beach, Florida.

Amy Kirby, Jenny Russell, Laura Blakemore and Tishaun Dudley had a blast in Clearwater, Florida. What memories they'll have.

Brian Publiski tries his luck at bungee jumping on his Spring Break. He traveled all the way to Gatlinburg, Tennessee to do it!

Vacation '95

“Seniors Will Never Forget Spring Break '95!”

Regis Recchia gives the camera a kiss. What a handsome guy!

Joe Kidder, Cameron Gunther, Kristi Baker and Angie Voelker hang out together after a long day of fun on Daytona Beach.

Laura Blakemore tries a new fashion statement in Clearwater, Florida; how does it look?

Kori Isaac and Regis Recchia have a great time in Florida, riding a Skyrider. Looks like fun!

A Time To Remember

His Majesty (prom king) Edgar Saddler and Her Highness (prom queen) Erica Curns dance the royal dance.

Jr./Sr. Prom

"Like our duds?" Justina Phillips, Naomi Porter, Caroline Jacob, and Josie Boss are proud to be different.

James Cudney and Sara Stange remember last year when they got engaged during Prom '94.

A Time to Remember

You go Anthony Taylor, surrounded by Ginger Gilmore, Cristie Badger, Tiffany Throne, and Kim Rose.

Mike Ladley introduces Tina Bogue to his girlfriend.

"This is the last picture!" says Amy Oltman to her date as they pose with Rachel Packard and Lonnie Cheevers.

Hey, Dr. Suess. No, Wait. That's Jason Taylor. Nice get up there bud!

"Mirrior, mirrior on the wall, who's the prettiest of them all?" Why, you are Amy Smith.

Yearbook staffers Amy McDougall and Amy Thompson make memories to last for life.

Graduation

To some graduation seems like the end. The end of seeing friends everyday, of hearing all the latest gossip, and of doing homework. To others, graduation seems like the beginning. The beginning of their adult life. Many of us will go on to college and to jobs. Some will move to other states or further. Graduation is the last time that we are together as a whole. Sure, there will be reunions, but there will always be some classmates who won't be able to make it. Graduation is sad because of what is ending, but happy because of being awarded for hard work while at Lincoln. The future is now in your hands.

Lincoln's Class of '95 was grateful to have two exceptional students for Valedictorian. Kim Johnson and Jeff Bacholzky move their classmates with very emotional speeches.

Salutatorian Wendy Thompson addresses her class with a heart-warming speech.

Class Secretary Tishaun Dudley presents the class gift of a tree to the school.

Class Treasurer Jodie Cox presents gifts to the class sponsors, Mrs. Dixon and Ms. Bocksky.

Jennifer Neumann, this year's senior choir performer of the year, sings the class song, "I'll Remember."

Senior members of the Choral Jazz join the others to sing "My Wish For You."

Riki Adams led the band as they played Lincoln's Alma Mater.

Vanessa Slaughter seems to be happy that it's over.

Lincoln Continental

For the third year the Lincoln school store opened and was a complete success. Because of the success of this project, which was started by a grant, the store is now also open after school. Students can get involved working in the school store by training in a marketing class. The profits that are earned go back to the students in the form of special learning materials and trips. Also, some of the money made is used to pay students who work in the store. Last year the students who ran the store had an opportunity to go to Cedar Point for two days and they also went to Greenfield Village.

WLHS

For the 3rd year WLHS has been broadcasting. WLHS was started because the P.A. system had broken down. Three years ago Mr. Nuzzo set up a video camera and the technology students decided they wanted to continue this. So they did. WLHS does its work 1st hour, during the time Mr. Nuzzo has his prep. Mr. Nuzzo is gracious enough to give this extra time. WLHS is a group of pals who all have the same interests.

James Cudney — Senior member is an announcer and video technician, he also does special events.

Kevin White — Producer, video technician, and does special events.

Quinten Mercer — Audio and graphics.

Sara Stange — Announcer, video technician, and special events.

USO

This is the group that has helped the community and school realize all the special people we have in our hallways, the different cultures and colors. The group that has tried to break down stereotypes of minorities such as Native Americans, African Americans and Caucasians. USO celebrates the history of every culture by having special assemblies for the school. "United as One" was U.S.O.'s theme for Black history month, which is appropriate for our school. Our school needs to unite together, to overcome the challenges that face us.

Tony Goughley, the terrific speaker for Native American month, tells about Native American stereotypes.

Members of the National Honor Society, advised by Mr. Ron Mulka, perform various community activities. This year the activities included: two blood drives, a clothes drive, they bought turkeys for needy families, put on a haunted house for the Early Elementary kids, a Valentine's Day raffle, a bowl-a-thon, an Easter Egg Hunt for the kindergartners, they also helped out at both the fall and spring teacher-parent conferences, and ushered for the spring musical, while having a bake sale at intermission to raise money for a sixth-grader's lung transplant. The National Honor Society does many a great thing to help out the school and the community. Keep up the good work! The officers of the National Honor Society for the 1994-1995 year are: President Barb Karenko, Vice-President Erica Curns, Secretary Becky O'Dell, Treasurer Natasha Eaddy, and Activities Coordinator Kim Johnson.

Concert, Choral Jazz & General Choir

The Lincoln Choirs are rising high above the rest this year. Choral Jazz took a first place and the Concert Choir took a second place in the competition at the Heritage Festival competition in Nashville, Tennessee. "They've done very well this year and worked harder than ever before," said Mr. McGehee. "It goes to show hard work does pay off."

Because this is Mr. McGehee's last year as choir director at Lincoln, the choir students wanted to make this a year he'll remember by bringing home two trophies from Nashville. In addition, both of the annual winter and spring concerts were unforgettable events, filled with great emotion and happiness.

The 1994-95 Lincoln Choirs would like to wish Mr. McGehee well and let him know that they will miss him.

Marching To The Beat Of A New Drummer.

The 1994-95 High School Band is marching to the beat of a new drummer, or in this case, a new instructor. Peter Closson, started during band camp so he had to, as he puts it, "hit the ground running." When asked what made him decide to teach at Lincoln, Closson says that this area has more performance opportunities than where he used to teach in the thumb area. For the musician in him that was very important. He said he also liked the fact that Lincoln was near Ann Arbor and Ypsilanti, but still has rural surroundings. Closson adds that he is looking forward to seeing the band program continue to improve. "There are a lot of quality people here and that's what will make it happen."

Changes

A changing of the guards took place this year between Superintendent Thomas McDougall and Assistant Superintendent Dr. William Harrison. Dr. Harrison took over as superintendent so that Mr. McDougall could concentrate on the building project and prepare for his retirement from education.

Dr. Harrison has done a remarkable job this, his first, year as superintendent. He has worked hard to make this transition run smoothly and to ensure that the building transitions go on without a hitch. He works hard to make sure that the students are receiving the best education they can possibly obtain. Dr. Harrison will be the person to lead Lincoln into the twenty-first century.

Mr. Thomas McDougall

Dr. William Harrison

Bruce Bayha definitely left his mark at Lincoln this year. Bayha was a tenth grader last year; but due to his persistence and exceptional skills, he graduated with the class of 1995. This year, at only 16, he enrolled in Lincoln's Dual Enrollment program where he took a full load of 12 credits at EMU. Bruce has created a path which will help other exceptional students to early graduation.

Bayha is the first Lincoln National Merit Scholarship semi-finalist since 1988. During the 1995 Honors Ceremony he received many awards, among them the Presidential Academics Achievement Award, an Honor Cord for graduating with a 3.0 or higher grade point average, a State of Michigan Competitive Scholarship Certificate of Recognition, as well as being a member of the Southeastern Conference All Academic Team. Bruce has three colleges in mind, Florida State University, California Institute of Technology, or Harvey Mudd University. Best of luck Bruce.

Exchange

Wow! How exciting it was for our students to go to a foreign country!

The qualifications for a student to visit another country, Spain, Germany, or France, is to have had two years of that language. They stay three weeks and try to gain as much knowledge as possible about the country they are visiting. They also try to have as much fun as possible as they learn of the culture.

During the trip to Spain this year, Lincoln students got to stay in Elda and Sevilla, Spain. They got to experience an all day, all night festival which lasted for five days. This was called the Moro and Christian's Festival. The students also got to see the American Square which was located in the city called Sevilla.

These students had many fun memories of their visit to far away places and will never forget all they did and learned.

It is also very exciting to have students from other countries come and see how our school differs from theirs. Comparing ways of living and things they do for fun is interesting! It is also exciting trying to teach our culture to students of other countries and show what we are about. Foreign exchange programs are educational, and a BLAST!

David Andreski and Danielle Kirby show a Spanish exchange student how we get down at our high school dances!

Students search through the many books, looking for one to catch their eyes. It often takes a while to make a decision between the large amount of great books!

Hmm! Let's see. Adventure, horror, romance, science fiction or maybe a Rock-N-Roll Magazine or a Brides Magazine. Decisions, decisions, too bad only one book may be selected per student.

Reading Is Fundamental! (R.I.F.)

R.I.F. Is Fun

Reading is fundamental or R.I.F. is a great program for students to receive a free book of their choice. This program allows students to choose a book they are interested in at no cost three times a year.

We have many sponsors who make R.I.F. possible: A.J. A big THANKS goes out to all donors, and to Mrs. Jan Upston who gives her help in distributing the books. The biggest THANK YOU, however, goes out to Mrs. Anitra Gordon for all her help and effort in making the R.I.F. program happen!

New Century Learning

Lincoln New Century Learning, NCL, as all students call it, is a new beginning to a different way of learning. At the beginning of the year most students were confused on the way the teachers, better known as the "Team," graded. The students finally realized this class was different from others. It brings out the best of Technology, Language Arts, Math, and Science. According to Mr. Nuzzo, "This class is like Tech. Ed. on steroids." So finally the year is coming to an end, and most of the students feel that they have learned something valuable from this unique class.

WOMEN'S SOCCER

The Varsity Soccer Team.

The Lincoln Women's soccer team is no illusion! The first season brought out enough women to have a Varsity and a J.V. team. The top scorers for the Varsity team were Chodden Sherpa and Sarah Vredveld. Top scorers for J.V. were Julie Schooley and Sarah Panzer.

Football Cheerleaders

For years now cheerleaders have had the stereotype of being stupid, silly, and stuck up. Lincoln cheerleaders have proven that stereotype wrong! Not only are the cheerleaders not stupid, but most of them have a "C" average or better. Led on by coach Cindy Cunningham, the squad has certain styles to have their chants in perfect unison, their jumps perfect, and their stunts completely safe. Try to imagine a football game without cheerleaders, it would be very dull. Show support for your cheerleaders!

Varsity Football

One more week and regular season practices were to begin. You could already hear sounds of football around Lincoln. Most teams were asking themselves if they were going to win the league championship, or make it to the state finals, while Lincoln was gearing up for regular season play.

A couple weeks before school started the defensive coach left the Splitters to take a teaching position at another school. So the team learned a new defense, which proved itself a force to be reckoned with throughout the season.

The Splitters successfully attempted to break a seven year losing streak at Homecoming, by defeating Dexter with a score of 20-7. After losing two games Lincoln took the upper hand in a cross town rivalry with Milan, with a score of 27-3. With this win we knocked Milan out of state play-off competition.

With another touchdown Lincoln JV pulls ahead 46 to 0 on the first game of the season. The JV team had a very good start this year against cross town rivals, Willow Run.

They defeated Chelsea, Dexter, and Milan, each one of these games were big wins. Lincoln scored a total of 89 points for these three games, while the other teams, together, scored only 33 points. Their season in the S.E.C. was 3-3 overall, Lincoln was 4-5 for the season.

"I just had it," exclaims Junior Jason Neal as he searches his pockets for a tee.

The Lincoln golf team has improved a lot this year, winning 3 matches and placing 5th at the S.E.C. meet. This year's improvement was due to the larger number of players who were able to play at the varsity level. There were 10 people constantly competing for the 6 spots on varsity. More players practicing on their own over the summer also played a major role in the team's improvement.

Cross Country

It started the same as any other season. Everybody had that early enthusiasm that seemed so usual for the beginning of each year. Every runner had his or her goal in mind, be it that of a state champion, or just a champion in their own right. Everybody had their dream, but then reality set; it was going to be a tough season.

Losses are difficult to handle for any athlete. When the defeat comes in the last minutes of a tight basketball game, the result is more than just difficult, it becomes crushing. "It's real depressing when you know you gave it your all only to lose," commented Junior Scott DeBuck. It wasn't that the team lacked talent or the will to win, they merely lost close games in crunch time. This team may not have had a winning season, but it was a good season. Next year the returning players will be strong and have a lot of experience; this will be a tough team to beat.

Lady Splitters

As all things come to an end sooner or later, so did the 1994-95 Lady Splitters basketball season. This year's final outcome was not bright from an outsider's point of view, just look at the scoreboard. But in the girl's own hearts and minds they knew for themselves what they accomplished. It has been a long haul for the senior girls.

Starting each of the past four seasons with a new coach, and ending again with a frown, a sagging head and a tear of disappointment. But all in all the girls stuck together through all the ups and downs, triumphant wins, and heart breaking losses. Together, they came out as a team.

J.V. Basketball

The J.V. Railsplitters did an admirable job this season of coming together and playing as a team. Coached by Jeff Nowak, they finished strong in third place of a tough SEC league. The squad finished with 13 wins and 7 losses overall (7-5 in SEC). To top off their season with just three games left, they destroyed their bitter rival, Pinckney, by 41 points. A tremendous offensive season. It was a great season.

Men's Swimming

The men's swim team had a slow start to their season, but through the dedication of a hard-working group of athletes and the addition of a new coach, Paul Hudson, and the help of Mr. Andon, physical education teacher, the team made a good showing at S.E.C. and S.M.I.S.L.

The team could always count on Jason VanRyn for a 1st or 2nd place finish in the 200 I.M. and 100 Butterfly. Pete Volgelsberg and Mike Renaud always placed well in the 100 Breaststroke. Jason Hunter was the strongest Backstroker on the team, while Steve Montgomery led the team in Freestyle. Great improvements were made by newer swimming members: Matt Richards, 500 Freestyle; Mike Renaud, 100 Breaststroke; Erick Murnighan, 200 Individual Medley; and Jason Bower, Backstroke.

This year the Wrestling team was full of expectations. Lincoln was up and down emotionally. They beat Milan in their up times and lost to Pinckney in their down times. ## Varsity Volleyball

Time goes by, the leaves fall and the snow begins to cover the ground. The varsity volleyball team begins to suit up for another season. A new coach with a spark that would never die turned everything around in a new perspective that one could only smile at. A team who always thought they were winners finally proved it to others this year, ending the season with a 8-4 conference record. There has never been a team as close, not only as teammates but also a friends, pass through Ypsilanti Lincoln. A team whose hard work and togetherness brought pride to the school. The girls ended the season with a long day at Districts, defeating Ida and Tecumseh, moving on to the championship game against Dexter and ending with a tearless loss. The Varsity Volleyball team of 1995 will always be remembered as winners.

Team closeness is what brought the ladies a winning season this year.

J.V. Volleyball

The bump, set, and spike technique came close to being mastered by the talented 10th grade girls. Once again a new coach started the season and ended with a satisfied smile. ## A New Team, A New Beginning

A new team, a new coach, a new beginning! A new start, right? Wrong! This team took the court with a lot of pressure right from the beginning. It took a lot of persuading and promising to even add a freshman team to the program. But with the look of determination in their eyes, and lots of hard work, they proved to the outsiders that adding a freshman team was a rewarding choice. With an overall winning record the girls represented Lincoln well.

Men's/Women's Track: A Hurdle Above The Rest

The Lincoln Railsplitter Men's and Women's Track teams both had great seasons this year. The successes of the teams were made possible by the exceptional senior men/women: Jeremy Stetler, Bryan Williams, Barb Karenko, Kim Johnson, Ricki Adams, Amy Smith and Kathy Taft. The men's team not only finished 2nd in the SEC, but they also sent runners to the State Meet. The women showed a tremendous improvement this year. Because of the strength of our juniors, both teams should have no problem adjusting to the loss of graduating seniors and taking control to lead Lincoln to another SEC Championship.

The Varsity Baseball team had a difficult season trying to rebuild from last year. With many players new to the varsity level, we had a very young, inexperienced team. We had a tough season, but the improvements made were encouraging. We won only two out of ten games in the S.E.C. league, but with dedication and hard work added to this year's experience, we look forward to an improved team next year.

The phrase "time flies when you're having fun" seems to combine with the 1995 softball season. Over thirty games played, every pitch, every out seemed to all go by so fast, especially for the seniors. Lincoln's Junior Varsity Baseball team had a great season this year showing much improvement from last year. Although the JV team didn't finish 1st in the S.E.C., they did finish high enough to be noticed. Through the rain and shine, coldness that chilled to the bone and blistering heat the J.V. softball team learned a lot. From the beginning days of being cramped together in one half of the gym to being free on the open field, the girls have improved a great deal. This year's team was young and inexperienced as the majority of the sophomore class moved up to Varsity, but the Freshmen class came in and took charge leading the team into a bright future.
